

IJPBS | Journal Policies/ Peer Review and Publication Policy

Open Access Policy

In order to ensure the maximum exposure of IJPBS contents, we adopted the open access policy, meaning that:

- All the articles published in IJPBS are made freely accessible online immediately after publication in an easily readable format, without any subscription or registration barrier.
- All the published articles are licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-4.0 International License, full details of which can be found <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>
- Articles can be shared and adapted, provided the attribution for the work is given and that the work is not used for commercial purposes.
- The journal also allows the authors to self-archive final accepted version of the articles on any OAI-compliant institutional/subject based repository.

Peer-review Policy

All the manuscripts submitted to IJPBS will be subjected to double blinded peer review process;

- The manuscript will be reviewed by three suitable experts in respective subject area. The reports of all the reviewers will be considered while deciding on acceptance/revision or rejection of a manuscript.
- Editor-In-Chief will make the final decision, based on reviewer's comments.
- EIC can ask the one or more advisory board members for their suggestions upon a manuscript, before making the final decision.
- Associate editor and review editors provide the administrative support to maintain the integrity of peer review process.
- In case, authors challenge editor's negative decision with suitable arguments, the manuscript can be sent to one more reviewer and the final decision will be made based upon his recommendations.

Waiver Policy

IJPBS may grant the partial/full waiver in article processing charges to the authors those are unable to pay the charges due to financial crisis. Only the authors from can apply for waiver. Waiver is applicable for one article per year for each submitting author.

Please send your waiver requests to juksanthi2000@gmail.com

Copyright policies

All the articles published in IJPBS are distributed under a creative commons license. The journal allows the author(s) to hold the copyright of their work (all usages allowed except for commercial purpose).

Please contact us at juksanthi2000@gmail.com for permissions related to commercial use of the article(s).

Author Self-Archiving Policy

IJPBS is an Open Access Journal. The journal allows the authors to self-archive pre-print, post print and publisher's version of the articles in any OAI-compliant repository.

Plagiarism Policy

Authors should ensure the originality of their contents, while preparing a manuscript draft. In case the authors have used the work and/or words of others this must be appropriately cited or quoted. All the articles submitted to IJPBS shall be screened for plagiarism using iThenticate (online plagiarism detection software). In case, plagiarism is detected during review/editorial process, such manuscript(s) will be rejected immediately. If the plagiarism is proven after publication, such manuscript(s) will be retracted from the journal and appropriate announcement will be placed in this regard. We can also consider appropriate action against authors depending upon the seriousness of the case. It includes;

- Debarring the authors from publication in future.
- We can bring such instants in notice of author's funding agencies, author's institutes (where they work) and to the original authors whose work has been plagiarized.

The Journal do check plagiarism of submitted paper through open source software Viper. To complain, please feel free to contact us. The journal will debar the guilty authors from publishing for the period of six months.
